

Application for Tenancy & Tenants Guide

(This document is not a tenancy contract)

Bush & Co Property Management Ltd (Bush & Co) takes your privacy seriously and we will only collect the information we will need to provide our service to you. Bush & Co will be what is known as your Data Controller and, as we also process the information, we are your Data Processor.

When you have chosen your property, we may need to pass your information to a third party. For example, a credit reference agency or an inventory clerk to help at the check in and check out stage. We only use trusted third parties, who will also respect and protect your information. We will always tell you when this is necessary and ask for your permission to go ahead.

The following information will be used to administrate your tenancy with Bush & Co and to compile the tenancy agreement itself. It is essential that all information you provide is accurate and complete, as failure to do so may result in additional charges being raised and, in some circumstances, will delay, or even prevent, the tenancy from proceeding.

Please provide TWO forms of ID with your application. One should be Photo ID (passport, driving licence, etc.) and one a utility bill or bank statement (issued within the last three months) showing your current address – please get in touch if you have any questions regarding this. If you are not a British or Irish citizen, you must also provide your right to rent share code given to confirm your settled or pre-settled status.

This document contains important information and advice regarding the proposed tenancy and your rights and responsibilities therein. Please ensure you have read and fully understand the content as by signing this document, you are confirming that the information provided by you is correct and complete and that you accept our terms.

Deposit (Holding):

To indicate your serious intentions to proceed with renting the property, as with most lettings agencies we require that a holding deposit be paid. This must be in the form of a bank transfer or debit/credit card payment (we cannot accept AMEX cards) only otherwise the property will not effectively be secured. This will be held against our expenses in processing your application, and if your application is successful, will be deducted from the payment of your first month's rent. This payment does not oblige the landlord to let the property concerned or any other property to you and it does not commit the landlord to granting a tenancy or constitute an offer of tenancy. No interest will be paid on this or any deposit to which you are, or maybe, entitled.

If your application is unsuccessful because you or any proposed joint tenant change your mind and withdraw or because we, the referencing agency or the landlord deem your references unsatisfactory, or the commencement date is delayed by you for more than seven days from the date of signature, then no money will be refunded to you. However, if the landlord decides not to proceed for any other reason, then we will return your money in full.

In the event of money being returned to you, all refunds are by bank transfer only and in the form of one payment – in the case of a group tenancy, to one single designated tenant. You should allow a minimum of 7 working days for dispatch of this refund.

If the tenancy commences, the holding deposit is deducted from the payment of the first month's rent leaving the balance of the start of tenancy monies payable upon completion of the tenancy agreement, prior to commencement and move in. Should the tenant decide not to take the property the holding deposit is not refundable.

Dilapidations Deposit:

If a tenancy agreement is entered into, the deposit, which is equal to 5 weeks rent, will be registered with the Tenancy Deposit Scheme (TDS) within thirty days of the start of the tenancy, details of which will be contained in the tenancy agreement. If there are any disputes at the end of the tenancy with regards to the deposit, that cannot be mediated by us as agents, they can be independently adjudicated by the TDS, whose decision will be final. Deposit returns are not split between individual tenants.

Emergency Maintenance:

Bush & Co provides contact numbers for out-of-hours/emergency issues (this will depend on whether your tenancy is managed by Bush & Co or directly by the landlord). These numbers are to be used in preference to any other contractor and only in the strict circumstance of an emergency, not for routine or non-emergency repairs. Misuse will result in the tenant being charged for the call-out. Emergency numbers can be accessed by calling the office number out of hours and listening to the answer machine message.

Insurance:

The owner will take responsibility for insuring the building but it is recommended that all tenants have contents insurance in place that covers accidental damage and liability.

Inventory:

An inventory of contents and schedule of condition will be prepared for each fully managed property by an independent inventory clerk. You will be asked to check the property against the inventory and detail any discrepancies to the inventory clerk. It is essential that you do check the inventory as this will be used for the end of tenancy check out.

Rent Payment:

Rent must be paid by the rent due date each month. The due date is the day of the month on which the tenancy commenced. Payment should be made by standing order. Share groups must arrange to make one joint payment.

Repairs:

It is essential that all maintenance issues are reported to Bush & Co promptly (this will depend on whether your tenancy is managed by Bush & Co or directly by the landlord). The owner will be responsible for the repair and maintenance of the services and fabric of the building, together with any fixtures and fittings e.g. kitchen appliances where supplied, except where the fault is due to misuse or damage by the tenants. We have a duty to report all maintenance problems to the owner and to await their instructions before instructing a contractor to attend the property.

Termination:

When you wish to leave the property, you must give one months written notice ending on the last day of a period of the tenancy. The owner is required to give a minimum of two months notice to take the property back.

Upon termination of the tenancy, the property is to be fully cleaned and all furniture should be replaced to the original position as at commencement. Fridges and freezers are to be defrosted and cleaned, with all food removed from the property, ovens and microwaves are to be cleaned properly, as are bathrooms. Carpets should be professionally steam cleaned and a receipt supplied to the agent for this (if this has been done at the start). All personal items are to be removed from the property. Any items left will be removed and may be discarded. Costs incurred in undertaking these requirements or completing unsatisfactory efforts will be charged to the tenants.

Early termination:

If the tenants asks to end their Tenancy early and before the end of the fixed term and the Landlord agrees to release the Tenant but not until new Tenants have been found and a new Tenancy agreement signed, the outgoing Tenant agrees to pay a charge not exceeding the financial loss experienced by the Landlord and also be responsible for the property, all utility charges, council tax and the rent until a suitable replacement tenant moves in.

Third parties:

At no time will a member of Bush & Co staff enter into dialogue, correspondence or contact of any kind regarding the tenancy with any third parties, whether related to a tenant or not. Only tenants listed on the tenancy agreement are relevant to any issues regarding the tenancy. In the case of two or more tenants residing at the property any correspondence about the tenancy will be conducted with one designated tenant rather than all tenants on the agreement. If there is a guarantor on the tenancy, then only financial matters relating to the tenancy will be discussed.

Utilities:

It is essential that tenants complete the necessary application forms and pay the relevant charges for the telephone, gas, water and electricity, failing which the services will probably be disconnected soon after taking occupation. It is the responsibility of the tenant to arrange final readings for these services prior to vacating the property in order to discharge any further liability and to ensure that the relevant deposits are returned. The tenant must make arrangements to pay the electricity, gas, council tax and water charges during the term of the Tenancy.

Please DO NOT have the utilities disconnected.

Summary of charges:
